ABOUT LUMIZONE

LUMIZONE - A musical meeting between the divine feminine and the divine masculine, is the husband-and-wife conscious music duo of Alexander Perez and Sidsel Ben Semmane — sonic alchemists with 30+ years of combined experience and mastery.

They weave live vocals, harmonies, world-inspired music, and instrumentation into deeply restorative ceremonial experiences that shift the environment, within and without ... creating moments guests can feel in the body and remember long after the experience ends.
